What is the Trail Running Film Festival?

The 2023 Festival will celebrate diverse stories that highlight the beauty, the grit, the variety of our trail running community. The festival will be an evening celebrating the best films by inspired filmmakers from all over the world. The film festival will take place at multiple locations in Washington, Utah, and the only other Canadian location thus far, Vancouver BC.

Who is the Trail Running Film Festival for?

Everyone! the Trail Running Film Festival is running enthusiasts from far and wide. Whether you already have a passion for running, or are thinking about giving it a go, this film festival will be a fun afternoon for all.

Why support the Trail Running Film Festival?

To put your business front and centre to potential local and regional customers, as an active member of our community and supporter of local sport. Supporting the Trail Running Film Festival will increase your reach and exposure to new clients and customers in your target market and provide an opportunity to connect with customers and engage with our audience. There is common ground between your priorities and our plans for the Trail Running Film Festival which make us a great fit.

If our packages proposed on the next page don't fit your needs, we invite you to let us know what we are missing so we can work together on a custom package that works for you. We want to hear from you!
